Fresh Oil for a New Season

June 5 – 7, 2026 · HBG Ministry, Akute, Nigeria

May 23, 2026

Dear Dr. Jide Ayangbesan,

Grace and peace to you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

On behalf of the entire ILPC 2026 planning team, we extend to you our warmest and most heartfelt welcome as our featured speaker for the International Leadership & Prophetic Conference (ILPC) 2026 — *Fresh Oil for a New Season. We are deeply honoured by your commitment to this gathering, and we believe God has anointed you with a specific word and mantle for this season that the leaders in that room need.

Pastors, ministers, missionaries, and leaders will come from across Nigeria expecting a fresh encounter with God. You have been positioned at two of the most pivotal moments in the three-day programme — and we are trusting God to move mightily through you at each one.
